

Statement from the Greater Capital Area Association of REALTORS®

Thank you VERY much to Amanda Michelle Gomez, the communications director for Janeese Lewis George's campaign, who pointed out on X an egregious error today.

The Greater Capital Area Association of REALTORS® (GCAAR)'s District of Columbia Independent Expenditures Committee (IEC) produced door hangers in support of D.C. mayoral candidate Kenyan McDuffie that began circulation today – Saturday, May 16. The hangers contained an error, where the logos of organizations that have not endorsed Mr. McDuffie in the mayoral election were accidentally printed as having endorsed him.

We apologize – we made a mistake. Once GCAAR became aware of this issue, we promptly worked with our design vendor to fix it. We've destroyed the incorrect hangers and will re-canvass where we distributed them to make sure they have the correct information. We are also working to directly notify the affected parties with an apology.

We appreciate everyone who called us out, and sincerely apologize to Mr. McDuffie, Ms. Lewis George and everyone else for causing confusion. It was not our intention to make any misrepresentations.

Thank you for your understanding of this unintentional mistake.
